Letter from the President:

Stepping into the role of President of Ivy Community Charities brought with it a blend of excitement and apprehension. While we thank our predecessors for a job well done, we ushered in a new era of programs and collaboration. As a business, Charities grew exponentially in 2018 as this report documents. The organization is recognized throughout the County, the region and nationally for the service that we provide and the management of our resources. We are particularly grateful for the many partners who worked with us and through us to enlarge our footprint in Prince George's County, Maryland.

The success of our organization would not have been possible without the dedicated work of our staff, especially Executive Director Cheryl Petty Garnette. The last 11 years have been remarkable and certainly a labor of love that will leave an indelible mark on our future. As you read this report, you will find a testament of her efforts and those of our 600 volunteers who worked tirelessly to strengthen families with the love that defines Ivy Community Charities.

Sincerely,

Deidre N. Jackson
President

Letter from the Executive Director:

"Blessed is she who has believed that what the Lord has said to her shall be accomplished!" Luke 1:45.

Every year we write about how amazing the previous year has been. Truly 2018 was no different. In fact, we surpassed nearly every goal for administrative, fundraising and programmatic efforts. We completed our second Strategic Plan that will help guide us to Charities' 35th year of service and beyond. We set a record for the number and amount of grants awarded to support programs and services, which exceeded $100,000.00. Grant funds permitted us to provide nominal stipends to four staff positions beyond those included in Charities' annual budget. We continued the renovations and improvements of the Ivy Youth and Family Center and we received a State bond bill to demolish the garage on our property in order to convert it into the Ivy Village Incubator for Nonprofit Excellence (VIRE), a facility where emerging nonprofits that focus on youth and families can build their capacity to become viable organizations. And we were recognized by Maryland Nonprofits as a Standards Basics Enhanced or Tier II Level Organization. Our marketing and technology presence skyrocketed as well as our reach to the community through our programs and services.

Truly the favor of God has been upon us; yet "to everything there is a season" and I have decided to step down as Executive Director. It has been a tremendous journey that opened my mind, heart and spirit to "incredible service." Over the past 11 years, Charities has grown on nearly every facet of the organization and I am extremely grateful and humble to have been at its helm. I extend my utmost appreciation to Kathy Keys Waymamm, who first appointed me to serve in my "dream retirement job" under her term as President in 2008, and to Erma W. Barron and Kim Rhim, who are my mentors. Special thanks also to the Charities Board of Directors, staff, Finance Committee, and Building and Property Committee for your commitment, dedication and consistent service - you have been and will continue to be my special family. To every volunteer, donor and community partner, we would not be the viable organization that we have grown to be without your support. John, Amber, Mother and Papa - your love and support encouraged me to always be the best that I can be. Thank you, all, for believing in me!

Sincerely,

Cheryl Petty Garnette

Addressing the Needs of Children and Youth

Elementary School Enrichment: The Popcorn Club is an after school program for elementary students to improve their reading and literacy skills and foster their understanding and participation in STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art and mathematics) subjects. In 2018, Charities continued its program at William Beanes Elementary School and expanded the program to include Forest Heights Elementary School as the result of a grant from the Prince George's County Local Development Council. A new offering at William Beanes Elementary School was the Pollination Education Program which was held in partnership with the Old Maryland Farm and the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission. The program allowed us to educate 138 young people about the importance of pollinators in our agricultural and economic environment. The students were provided wildflower seeds to plant over 1,400 square feet of wildflower meadows in a pollinator habitat. These meadows can help stop the decline of bees, butterflies, and other pollinators. Students at Forest Heights learned to be Explorers in Aruba as they studied maps to understand the concept of distances and examined their own butterflies brought back from Aruba by Executive Director Cheryl Petty Garnette. Using technology, they identified online which state insects are butterflies and the names of the various state butterflies (the Baltimore Checkerspot Butterfly is the Maryland state insect!) In December, students from both schools were taken on field trips; the William Beanes students visited New York City to see the Rockettes Christmas Spectacular at Radio City Music Hall and the Forest Heights students enjoyed a tour of the ICE! It's a Charlie Brown Christmas production at the Gaylord Hotel in National Harbor, Maryland. The trips were made possible through grants awarded to Charities from Council Member Karen R. Toles (District 7) and the Prince George's County Local Development Council, respectively.

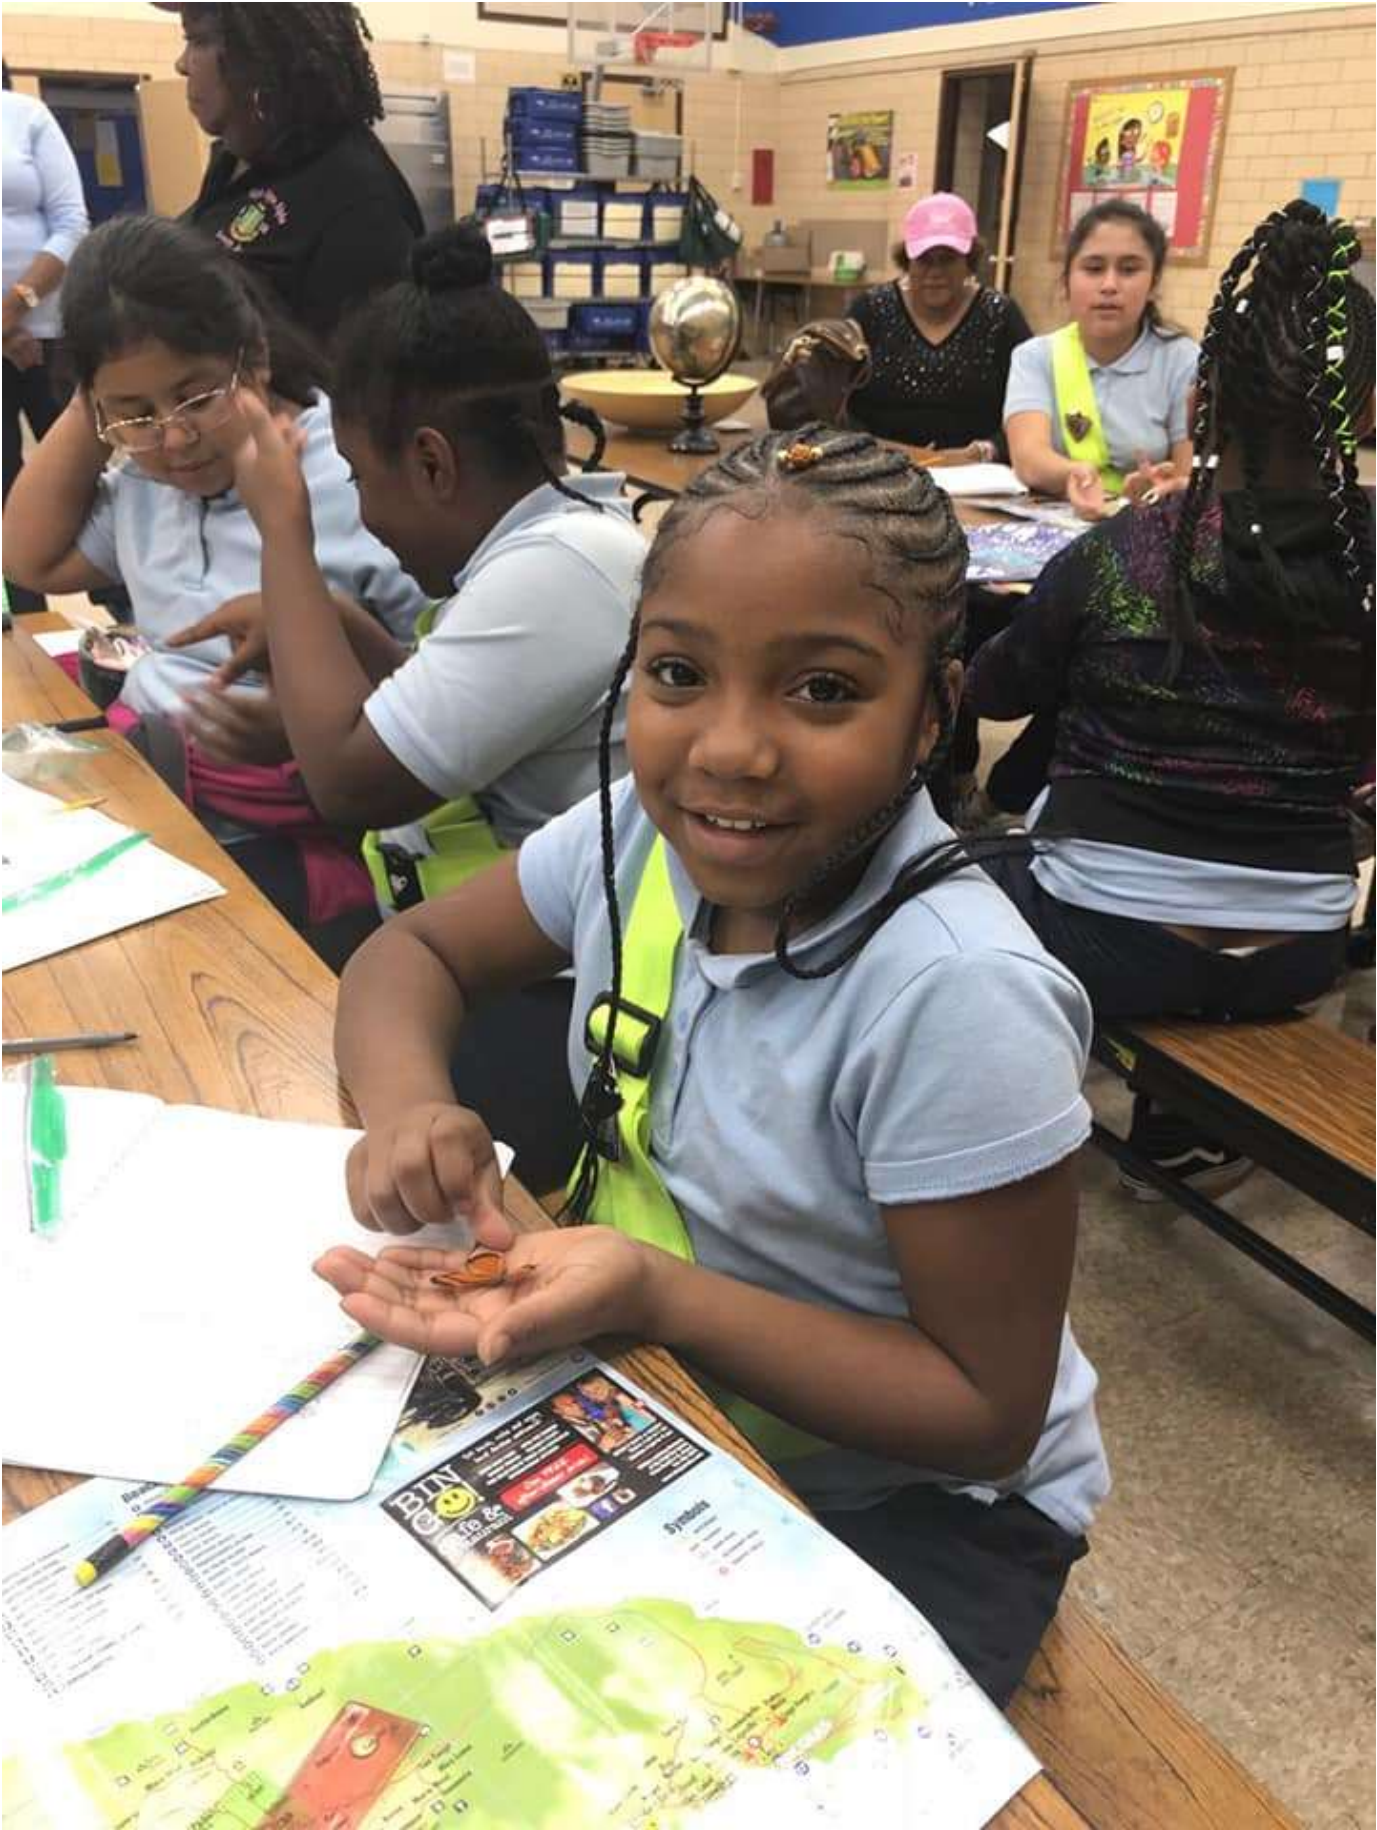

Middle School Mentoring: The Sarah Wise Wooten Young Ladies Academy is designed to cultivate young ladies attending middle school in Prince George's County by involving them in substantive activities that encourage positive self-imaging, develop leadership skills and promote positive community involvement and academic excellence thus producing high achieving, socially productive and responsible future leaders. Students began the year with a workshop highlighting the importance of bullying prevention. With social media applications such as Instagram and the constant communication exchange among adolescents, our youth are exposed to bullying and its consequences at an increasing rate. Students participated in a candid dialogue about bullying, its presence both online and in schools, as well as measures that can be taken to stand against bullying. In February, the students brought the rhythm and the noise to honor Black History Month with the dynamic world-renowned professional dance company, Step Afrika. The students received a brief introduction about Step Afrika with an explanation of the cultural origins of the art of stepping and the various forms of African traditional dances. Students explored the fashion, acting, and photography industries. From designing an article of clothing, performing an improvisational skit, to conducting a professional photo shoot, the participants were fully engaged from start to finish. Healthy eating habits and positive lifestyle choices were discussed in April as the girls learned to make healthy fruit and vegetable smoothies. The 5th Annual 2018 Tots To Teens Expo at the Prince George's Sports and Learning Complex as the venue for the May workshop. The annual expo serves the Washington region by connecting children and their families to local organizations and businesses where they participated in diversity, healthy lifestyles, STEAM and self-defense activities. Fall workshops focused on STEAM as the young ladies used fragrance lab kits to create their own perfumes, participated in an interactive game of Math Jeopardy, and learned about computer coding and robotic art. The students ended the year by participating in community service project to make dresses from pillowcases to be sent to girls in Liberia.

High School - College and Career Preparation: The Institute for the Growth and Development of All of America's Youth (Institute GADAAY) promotes the personal, social and cultural growth and development of high school students – both males and females - to prepare them for college and careers. In partnership with the Iota Gamma Omega Chapter, Charities adopted the ASCEND program - Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.'s signature educational enrichment program – as part of its service for high school students that focuses on enhancing students' skills and abilities in STEAM activities, appreciation of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, and understanding of the United Nations and its global impact. As a result of a Department of Parks and Recreation grant, students participating in GADAAY, SWWYLA and the Cotillion~Beautillion were able to attend a special performance of the Alvin Ailey Dance Theatre at the Kennedy Center. As a community service project, the students made gingerbread houses over the holidays for sick children and wrapped more than 500 toys that were distributed to every student at Suitland Elementary School in collaboration with Council Member Karen R. Toles.

High School - College and Career Preparation: College Admissions Process (CAP!). Recognizing the escalating costs of college application fees, Charities hosted two special college day events where high school seniors were able to submit an application to the Common Black College Application at no charge. Students were also provided a trunk load of dormitory and class items. A total of 100 students benefited from the college admission process and the college awareness event.

High School - College and Career Preparation: Scholarships. Since 1994 Charities has provided more than $600,000.00 in scholarships to Prince George's County students on the basis of academic excellence or financial need. Through our participation in the United Way of the National Capital Area's Do More 24 fundraising campaign, we were able to increase the minimum scholarship amount to $1,500.00. In total, we awarded more than $50,000.00 in scholarships to 29 students ranging from $1,500.00 to $3,000.00 in 2018.

Cotillion~Beautillion, The Cotillion~Beautillion is a formal ball where young ladies and young gentlemen are introduced to society. Charities previously conducted the event on an annual basis. Prior to 2008 the ball was conducted as the culminating event of the Institute GADAAY; after 2008, the event was held as a fundraiser. After the 2015 Cotillion~Beautillion, Charities conducted a thorough assessment of the feasibility of continuing the ball and the decision was made to hold the event in alternating years and tie it to our program efforts rather than as a fundraiser. This decision was based on an analysis of the 15-year trend of the revenue and expenses which revealed that the financial return on investment was below 35% in every instance. Thus 2018 was the first year of the event since 2015. The theme was "A Portrait of Elegance and Grace" and 16 students including 14 debutantes and two beaus were introduced to society at the event which was held at Martin's Crosswinds in Greenbelt, Maryland.

Addressing the Needs of Families

Parenting: The Parents on Track initiative provides workshops and resources for parents, who meet monthly during the same time that their students participate in our youth programs. The interactive sessions allow the parents to share their experiences, concerns and techniques, and to receive information from experts about critical issues that affect their families, thereby establishing a support network to empower them as agents of change.

The Elderly - The Sunshine Club. Every month Charities volunteers treat the residents of the Forestville Health and Rehabilitation Center to a day of pampering, fun games such as bingo with the chance to win prizes, and special birthday celebrations. In 2018 as the result of a grant from the Parks and Recreation Department of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission, Charities arranged for 16 residents and chaperones to take an Odyssey Cruise on the Potomac River that included a full lunch and entertainment. For nearly one year, a blind resident had been waiting to receive books on tape from another source. After learning of the man's request, Charities surprised him with a CD player and three books on CD for his listening pleasure.

Adopted Families. In partnership with the Maryland Department of Human Services for Prince George's County, Charities' Family Advocates supported six families by securing the resources necessary to achieve their family-specific goals. The families include 23 children, one grandparent-headed family, one foster parent-headed family, three single parent head of household families and one two-parent household. Activities during 2018 included providing shoes, seasonal wraps, school uniforms, financial literacy workshops, family outings such as barbecues, and Christmas gifts for the entire family.

Angel Tree Project. We continued our partnership with the Mall at Prince George's to support the children of incarcerated parents by providing holiday toys, clothing and other personal items. During 2018, Charities donated gifts to support 80 families.

Delivering Services - Shoe Bank. Since its inception, Charities has provided new shoes to students in need as identified by local school administrators, the Prince George's County Department of Social Services and area nonprofit organizations. In 2017 Charities was selected as BB&T Bank's Lighthouse Project for Prince George's County as a result of this service activity. In 2018, our targeted audience included our Adopted Families and Popcorn Club participants as well as students identified by school principals and staff.

Women's Health and Wellness. During the month of October, Charities hosted a Breast Cancer Awareness Symposium at the Ivy Youth and Family Center. Breast cancer survivors shared their stories with the audience and Keynote Speaker and Surgical Breast Specialist, Dr. Regina Hampton-Coleman, spoke to the group of 80 participants regarding early detection, screening, and treatment for breast cancer.

Charities employs a host of revenue generating streams to support its efforts including membership dues, fundraisers, grants, endowment funds, online campaigns and federal charitable campaigns. In 2018, Charities witnessed its highest fundraising income for its two primary fundraisers in 15 years as well as the most grant income in its 32-year history.
