*"BLESSED IS SHE WHO HAS BELIEVED THAT WHAT THE LORD HAS SAID TO HER SHALL BE ACCOMPLISHED."
LUKE 1:45*

Greetings:

In December of 2022, The Ivy Community Charities of Prince George's County, Inc. (Charities) celebrated 35 years of service to the residents of Prince George's County, Maryland. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU to everyone who made our 35th anniversary year a year to remember!

On November 14, 1970, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Iota Gamma Omega Chapter was chartered as the first African American fraternal organization in Prince George's County, Maryland. For the next 15 years, the Prince George's County community was very generous in donating to the many fundraising activities sponsored by the chapter to help provide programs of service to the residents of the County. In 1985, the fourth president of the chapter, Mrs. Erma W. Barron, envisioned the creation of a non-profit foundation as a means of giving back to the community for their generous support by establishing a 501 (C)(3) organization which would allow for tax deductible donations and new opportunities to seek public and private grants.

Under her leadership, Mrs. Barron established a year-long process to prepare the application and created an educational process for the chapter members about how this type of organization would work and benefit both the chapter and the community. A year later in 1986, The Alpha Kappa Alpha Community Charities of Prince George's County, Inc. was chartered in the State of Maryland. The name was changed to The Ivy Community Charities of Prince George's County, Inc. in 1999.

Since that time, each of the following Presidents of Charities made great contributions to our growth from organizational development, introducing new programs of service and establishing new partnerships while strengthening the collaboration and operational relationship with the Iota Gamma Omega Chapter: The late Louise L. Brown, Oretha Bridgewaters Simms, the late Gloria McCollum, Cheryl Petty Garnette, Carolyn N. Pinckney, Kathy Keys Waymman, Ingrid Harrison, Saran T. Baker, and Deidre N. Jackson.

Today, the Iota Gamma Omega Chapter has grown from 24 to 574 members, all of whom are also members of Charities which has total assets of over $2 million. These assets include the Ivy Youth and Family Center and the Ivy VINE (Village Incubator for Nonprofit Excellence) Complex which will include two additional buildings – a smart conference center and a building of office suites which will allow additional nonprofits to access training and networking to help them reach their full potential.

This year's annual report highlights the significant progress we made this year, not only in terms of the variety of services we provided County residents, but also the intentional capital campaign goals and accomplishments that will ensure the timely completion of the Ivy VINE Complex.

Again, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, for your continuous support!

Sincerely,
Cheryl W. Owens, President

January 2023

To the Board of Directors, Charities Members and Community Partners:

With the help of your collective support, The Ivy Community Charities of Prince George's County, Inc., (Charities) continued to grow and thrive throughout 2022. Unlike many nonprofits across the United States, Charities was blessed to sustain our work as the world evolved past the global pandemic. In February 2022 Prince George's County Executive Angela Alsobrooks lifted the indoor mask mandate as incidents of COVID-19 continued to drop significantly compared to the previous year's rates. Months later the County Executive instituted a second youth curfew to help curb the increased incidents of unruly behavior and unlawful activity that managed to follow months of involuntary shut-ins posed by the pandemic.

While pivoting to identify innovative ways to maintain student and parent participation beyond the pandemic, Charities focused on elevating its operations as an effective and efficient business organization. We completed the requirements to earn the Maryland Nonprofits Standards for Excellence accreditation certification; began our third and final year as a member of the third cohort of organizations selected by the County Council to participate in the Ready for Work capacity building program led by Fair Chance and Venture Philanthropy Partners (VPP); and completed our third Strategic Plan that defined our expanded mission to empower youth, strengthen families and build generational success over the next four years.

Through our Strategic Plan, Charities is committed to turning around the generational curse that often plagues Black youth and families and to focus on generational success. Charities will rewrite the narrative and launch a positive stance for the residents of Prince George's County, Maryland. Our strategy of generational success is intended to change the trajectory and progress beyond past histories of social injustice and inequity to a path that leads to improving, sustaining and advancing the quality of life for our youth, families, and senior citizens. Specifically, Charities will enhance its partnerships, resources and talent leading to improved health, academics and economic stability of our residents and longevity of small businesses throughout our community.

We welcome the opportunity for the community to join us in this venture.

Sincerely,
Cheryl Petty Garnette, Executive Director

Overview of Accomplishments

(1) Began our third year as a member of the third cohort of the Ready for Work capacity building program established by the Prince George's County Council and Venture Philanthropy Partners (VPP). (3) Recruited and hired our first Deputy Executive Director, Miriamm Wright McKinney. # Standards for Excellence Accreditation and Annual Report Recognition

"We are holding our Standards for Excellence Licensed Consultant course Class of 2022 next week (!) and I made a last-minute decision to feature a few Standards for Excellence seal holders' annual reports in the segment on annual reports. Your 35th anniversary annual report from 2021 is so terrific—so much incredible information-- conveying your story and of course, including all of the Standards for Excellence required elements and I wondered if it would be okay with you if I shared copies of the Ivy Community Charities report with attendees so that they will be able to check out a report that includes all the elements?"

Amy Coates-Madsen, Maryland Nonprofits Vice President of Programs

Charities' response: "Absolutely!"

Service is Joy! The Ivy League Program

Popcorn Club: It's not just tutoring and reading enrichment! It's a window on the world for elementary school students, particularly those from our County's most distressed communities. Despite COVID, our volunteers provided more than 100 hours working with the entire second grade class at William Beanes Elementary School in Suitland, Maryland. Field trips to area parks coupled with arts entertainment expanded the learning experience for the students and our volunteers!

Sarah Wise Wooten Young Ladies Academy (SWWYLA): Who says middle school has to be tough? In response to research studies that suggest that adolescent males and females learn better when they are separated, SWWYLA targets middle school girls to open their eyes to opportunities in science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics (STEAM) while enhancing self-esteem and character/team building. Having endured two years of programming in a virtual setting due to the pandemic, SWWYLA students requested that we open our doors again. After implementing rigorous health and safety protocols, the Ivy Youth and Family Center was bustling again with students in the fall.

The Institute for the Growth and Development of All America's Youth (GADAAY): Our program for high school males and females prepares them for college and careers with an emphasis on leadership development. Topics included social and technological etiquette, dating and social relationships, civic awareness, academic enrichment and financial literacy.

Parents on Track: Parents are the biggest asset in the development of their young people. Our program for parents helps them to serve as advocates for their children on all levels including education and health. During the early stage of the pandemic, our numbers dwindled, however, in 2022, our numbers resumed and grew by the end of the year. The topics of most interest to the parents included mental health and social justice.

Delivering on a Promise: Charities' Scholarship Endowment for Bowie State University Reaches $25,000! Maryland's oldest Historically Black College and University located in Prince George's County

After receiving donations from Charities' members Chris Stewart and Lisa White at the end of 2019 to launch the Ivy Community Charities/Iota Gamma Omega Bowie State University Endowment Fund, Charities signed a Memorandum of Understanding in 2020 with the University establishing our commitment to raise $25,000 over five years ($5,000 each year from 2020-2024) when the funds would be transferred to the Bowie State University Foundation to be capitalized. By the end of 2022, Charities had reached its goal, one year early and presented the $25,000 check to Dr. Amita Breaux at the organization's Annual Meeting in January 2023!

In carrying out its Strategic Plan, Ivy Community Charities hosted an Educators' Forum to help the organization better understand the academic landscape and how we can refine, develop and sustain programs that will improve and impact the future of our students and families.

Paying It Forward to Promote Generational Success: The Ivy Village Incubator for Nonprofit Excellence (Ivy VINE)

Our vision when we purchased the property at 6118 Walton Avenue was to give back to the community and support the economic stability of our County by establishing a facility where emerging nonprofits would have office space, access to business resources, and training to help build their capacity to serve the citizens of Prince George's County, MD. The Ivy VINE is intended to serve at the crossroads of innovation and destination – where emerging nonprofit leaders are inspired and encouraged to create new ideas and synergistic business partnerships to address County needs.

As the construction delays continued through 2022, we quickly realized that the most important element of the vision was the capacity building initiative and we resolved to not let the permitting delays stifle our progress. In 2022, with the assistance of members of the Community Advisory Committee that was established in 2021, Charities completed the application process and defined the training workshops in preparation for the first cohort of nonprofit partners who would be selected in 2023.

Ivy VINE Goals Set for 2021-2023

Charities identified six major goals for the Ivy VINE. Through the Jewel Group Concept, more than $170,000 was raised over two years. In addition, two bond bills were awarded in 2022 under the leadership of Senator Ron Watson, Delegate Wanika Fisher and Delegate Karen R. Toles to support the construction of two facilities for training and office spaces. With a grant awarded by the Office of the County Executive Angela D. Alsobrooks in 2022, training and coaching of competitively selected nonprofits was scheduled to begin in 2023.

Establish an aggressive fundraising strategy to raise $2 million over three years ✓

Develop a strategic sustainability plan to ensure that the Ivy VINE remains viable ✓

Identify sponsoring partners to financially support the Ivy VINE concept ✓

Institute the Community Advisory Committee to identify the selection criteria for potential nonprofits that will benefit from the Ivy VINE ✓
